Reason for God

- The physical universe is not a closed system where it's future depends on resources within itself. It is an open system. It did not create itself and can be acted upon by forces outside it.
- It had a beginning, which could not be caused by something else physical; it had to be non-physical
- The natural world around us - the physical universe points to a designer/creator/architect

The Existence of God

- The biblical God of Judaism and Christianity
 - A spiritual or non-physical, ultimate and absolute being
- Attributes of personality and consciousness, knowledge, emotion, and will
 - A person of immense proportions in substance, power, and goodness of character
- Involves himself in human affairs through his primary nature of love
 - His existence and activities depend on nothing but himself

A Christian Worldview

- God created the world, he is real, and he has a Kingdom
- God intervenes in his creation and is involved in our lives
- God desires to know us and have an intimate, personal and loving relationship with us; the reason we were created
- Satan, the Prince of Darkness is a real being with limited power, seeks our destruction, and his domain is the created world

The Kingdom of God

 - Throughout the Bible God is explaining the Kingdom to us
 - Governed by God and all who live in it are subject to its way
 - The kingdom of the world is governed by the Prince of Darkness and stands in opposition to the Kingdom of God

Identity

How I define my self

- I am designed by God
- I am loved
- I am enough
- I have a purpose
- I have free will and can independently make decisions that affect my life

I have worth and value and the extent to which I experience it influences my identity

- My ideal self, my real self, and how I feel about my self
- There is an incongruence between my ideal self and my real self that must be viewed through grace

What God says is true about me (Psalm 139; Acts 17:24-28)

- Life before and leading up to my existence
- God planning the days I would live
- Impossible to get away from him
- He sees who I am and who I can be
- He wants a relationship of trust and dependence with me

Agape LOVE

- The source of goodness in character
- LOVE wills the good of what is loved
- The correct understanding of LOVE, and the intelligent overall orientation of our lives in terms of it, is the source from which all standards of virtue and right behavior and all the aspects of goodness of character coherently flow
 - For those nearby, neighbors with whom you're in contact
- An action and not simply an emotion or a feeling about the entire world
- Something you do in ordinary situations and not only extraordinary ones; more than simply alleviating suffering
- Extends beyond simple obedience - not just keeping the commandments

Hearing God

- God's communication with us usually comes in the form of thoughts or perceptions; impressions in our soul or inner being. Our spirit.
- The word of God will not become life changing for us unless we apply it to the specific circumstances of our life.
- When our own inner conscience speaks to us , we find that voice arguing with us. The voice of God in us will never argue, but will state clearly and plainly what is true
- Nowhere in the Bible did any man, animal, or being doubt the voice of God or Jesus when they spoke

The Word of God

God is speaking to us through the Bible

Whenever you read the Bible ask two questions:

- What is God saying to me about the Kingdom and living in it?
- What is God saying to me about my character and any decisions I am being asked to make?

The Three Lights

Use these to prepare yourself to receive a message from God and not necessarily to be the message itself

1. Circumstances - closed & open doors, a change in a situation; opportunities with or without a deadline
2. Impressions from the Spirit of God - an awareness, perception, or voice that is familiar and consistent
3. The Word of God - the voice of God will never contradict the Word of God; a Kingdom Cleanse (Ephesians 5:25-27)

Characteristics of God's Voice

We identify the voice of God speaking to us the same way we would from any other human person trying to communicate with us

- 1. Quality - weight; character; impact
- 2. Spirit - the way Jesus spoke to his disciples and people with whom he was ministering
- 3. Content - principles from the Word of God, fundamental truths over individualized messages. God's voice will never contradict his word in the Bible
